The Story of E-motive

Innovative approaches in global education

International Conference * Thursday 21st of January 2016 *
Location: The Egg, Barastraat 175, 1070 Brussels, Belgium

What is your perspective on the world? And, how does this influence the way you learn and think about others?

E-motive is an innovative approach to life-long learning. Professionals from the global South and North share local solutions for global issues.

Do you want to change your perspective and the world and learn about new approaches in global education?

Join us at the international conference, and:

- meet leading social innovators
- experience the E-motive approach
- get inspired to improve global education
- share in practical and evidence based workshops
