Your social initiative

THE E-MPULSE GAME

The The E-mpulse Game calls for social initiatives with local solutions for global challenges, who want to bring their initiative to a next level.

- Do you have a local innovative solution to local or global issues and do you want to implement it?
- Do you want to develop this project with a partner (person/group/community/organization) from another country?
- Are you excited to develop your project with support of a worldwide community of organizations, communities, governments and change-agents?

- Do you have a project that aims to build the world you dream off?
- Are you looking for a network and space for coaching, online masterclasses and to connect to potential funders?

Than this is your call...

THE E OF E-MOTIVE:

E-motive is a worldwide matchmaking network for innovative social solutions. With the E-mpulse Game we aim to boost your inter-local project, fostering collaboration between organizations in the global south, north, east and west.

IMPULSE: THE POWER OF PARTNERSHIP

The E-mpulse Game is open for ngo's, communities, social entrepreneurs and any other changemaker with a bright idea. You can sign up as 'Global players' and 'Local players'; As Global player you sign up to this game with your project, with an existing international partner. As a local player you can find a collaborating partner on the platform and together we will take you both on a journey of development, action, fun and knowledge-exchange with participants from all over the world.

GAME: A FUN, COLLECTIVE AND INTERACTIVE CHALLENGE

The E-mpulse Game is an online and offline incubation challenge to support you to build partnerships in the development of your ideas, dreams and projects that will change the world. In 5 challenges you will be supported in building a powerful plan and an irresistible partnership proposal. Who knows you may win a trip to present your plan at our matchmaking event in Madrid!

TELL ME MORE...

The incubation process is focused on helping you to take your collaboration and project to a next stage, but is at the same time a collective challenge to find support for all participants involved.

The whole process of the E-mpulse game has the following components:

- An online workspace for presenting and developing projects, sharing experiences, tools, working materials, and support between members. Every three to four weeks you'll receive a new challenges.

- Online coaching (as groups and individuals)
- Group mentoring and renowned specialists' online masterclasses
- Collective matchmaking and mobilization process of funders and supporters
- A closing collaborative offline event for participants to present their project achievements to the platform members and partners.

Supported by our online game, a worldwide community of participants, coaching and support of experienced facilitators and speakers we will get you ready to present your plan to partners, supporters and funders at our E-mpulse Festival in Madrid in November.

I SAY YES... AND NOW WHAT?

Participating means you have to pass our first five checks.

Can you say yes to this?

- Time; are you able to give and willing to spend about 4 to 8 hours per week from 8th of June to 15th of October
- Online; can you organize a proper connection for videoconferencing? (specs)
- Exchange; are you up for exchanging learnings with your partner and other organizations from all over the world?

- Network; are you willing to mobilize your own network for your and other people's projects?
- Visit; would you be able (and willing) to reserve your agenda to come to our spectacular E-mpulse festival in Madrid (8 sponsored tickets available)?

THE BIGGER PICTURE

E-mpulse Game is more than just a game. You become part of a network that for the last 5 years has been rethinking development cooperation, shifting our mindset about north-south relationships to a mutual learning perspective and promoting advocacy, exchange and community actions that not only solve problems, but also open people's minds to what is possible in this world.

We want to keep innovating global solutions, build competences for collaboration, re-think fundraising for social impact and spark your work that has impact where you are and might offer solutions, tools and inspiration for other people's challenges.
